Description

The site comprises an open storage yard facility totalling approximately 1.5 acres which our client is splitting into various open storage compounds to be let on flexible lease terms. Compounds are available from 1,535 to 8,690 sq ft immediately. The site is compact crushed stone throughout.

Each compound will have the benefit of secure fencing, electric and water supply.

Location

The site is situated within the London Borough of Ealing and located on the east end of Wood End Gardens in Northolt. Wood End Gardens leads into Wood End Road and crosses over the Piccadilly line which forms the northern flank of the site and creates a barrier between Ealing and Harrow Council.

The site is conveniently located 1.7 miles from the A40 which is a key route into central London going westbound from the site. Alternatively, going eastbound from the site, the A40 provide links to the Home Counties via the M40.

Terms

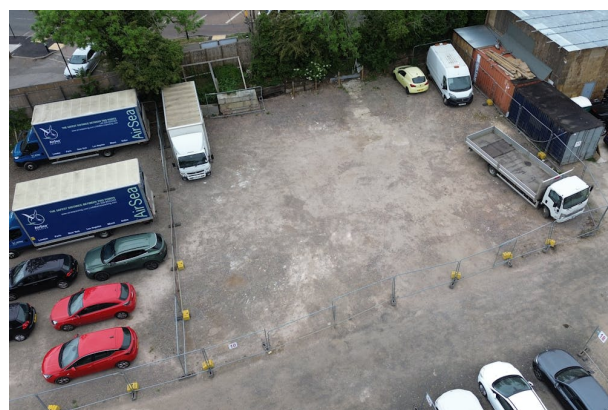

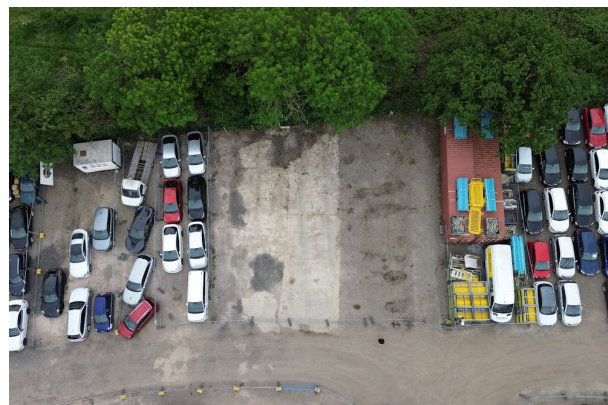

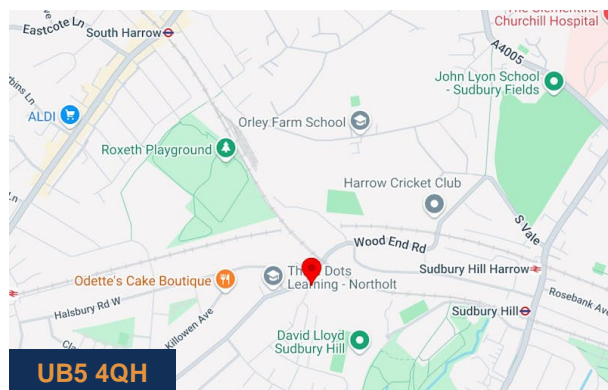

The compounds are available by way of a 28-day rolling license.
